Social Media Policy

Learners & staff & Staff must always use social media sites in a responsible manner, having due regard to the rights and reputation of MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD and of others. Learners & staff & Staff are required to comply with the following rules:

- Do not use social media sites for any purpose which is prohibited under the terms of MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD ICT Policy.
- Do not use social media so as to contravene or breach the laws of UK, specifically in relation to: privacy rights, defamation law and data protection law.
- Do not use social media sites to engage in any form of bullying or behaviour which is illegal or likely to cause harassment (e.g. stalking, grooming of minors, etc.), or to intentionally offend and/or degrade others, in particular fellow learners & staff and staff.
- Do not excessively duplicate previously posted communications (other Users may consider this as spam).
- Do not impersonate any other person nor engage in trolling (i.e. intentionally insulting and harassing people via the Internet).
- Do not post, video or record another person without their express permission.
- Do not post or upload data, including text, video, image etc. of any person without their express permission.
- Do not post any material which breaches the intellectual property rights of third parties (e.g. logos, written works, diagrams, pictures, music, video/film clips, etc.); where necessary the express permission of the rights holder should be obtained.
- When posting as individuals, Learners & staff are asked to consider that it may be appropriate for them to identify any personal views expressed by them, on third party websites, as their own and not representing MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD.
- While recognising the importance of academic freedom, Learners & staff must ensure that they adhere to this Policy for any official MI accounts.

- Do not use the name of MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD, including any emblems or logos, to promote their own commercial objectives or activities.

Social Media Policy

- Do not use the name of MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD, including any emblems or logos to imply that they endorse an activity without its prior written consent.

Third Party Social Media Sites

Third party social media sites, such as Facebook, twitter, YouTube and LinkedIn are used at the Learner's own risk and since MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD has no control over these sites, MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD cannot take any responsibility for data stored on these sites. Learners & staff should familiarise themselves with the terms and conditions governing all social media sites and adhere to these conditions, in addition to the regulations set out in this Policy. Learners & staff should ensure that they protect themselves, read and familiarise themselves with any privacy policy governing the site to ensure that they are happy with the uses and disclosures that may be made of their data. It is recommended that Learners & staff maintain the highest possible privacy settings (i.e. "private" profile on Facebook). Learners & staff should be aware that this security may not be possible on some services (such as Twitter or LinkedIn).

Think Before You Post

Even where social media accounts have been deactivated, copies of user information may still remain online. Before posting content on a social media site, Learners & staff should consider the permanent online footprint they are creating in doing so. The nature of the Internet provides unique opportunities for copying and dissemination of information, regardless of the originator's intentions. Learners & staff should think carefully about whether they are happy for their information to be made available in this manner, not just now, but into the future (such as in the context of exams, future job applications, etc.). The potential for copying information on the Internet makes it difficult to permanently delete user information.

Compliance with Policy

MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD reserves the right to monitor, intercept and review, without notice, the postings and activities of Learners & staff where there is reason to suspect that this Policy is being breached, or were deemed necessary by MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD for other legitimate reasons.

MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD reserves the right to disable access to social networking if there is ANY evidence that their continued use is likely to cause a degradation of network performance or security or there is a risk that it will expose MELIORATE INSTITUTE EDUCATION & TRAINING LTD to legal action. It also reserves the right, through the IT department, to disconnect ANY computer and/or Learner from the network where there is evidence that the computer is being used in a manner which breaches copyright or data protection legislation or which puts the services available to other users at risk.

Breaches of this policy will be dealt with under Disciplinary Procedures and may be considered as gross misconduct.
